HOSTEL RULES

To make life in this student hostel as comfortable as possible for everyone, please remember these rules.

Security. You have a special card which operates the electronic lock on your room door and a key for the main door of the hostel. These are your responsibility and should never be lent to anyone, including your fellow students. If you lose them you will be charged £ 30 for a replacement. Do not leave your room unlocked even for short periods (for example when making yourself a coffee). Unfortunately, theft from student hostels is very common and insurance companies will not pay for stolen goods unless you can prove that your room was broken into by force.

Visitors. There are rarely any rooms available for visitors, except at the end of the summer term. The hostel manager will be able to tell you and handle the booking. A small fee is charged. The manager also keeps a list of local guesthouses, with some information about what they are like, prices, etc. You are also allowed to use empty beds for up to three nights, with the owner's permission (for example if roommate is away for the weekend), but you must inform the manager before your guest arrives, so that he has an exact record of who is in the building if a fire breaks out. Students are not allowed to charge each other for this.

Kitchens. There is a kitchen on each floor where light meals may be prepared. Each has a large fridge and a food cupboard. All food should be stored, clearly marked with the owner's name, in one of these two places. Bedrooms are too warm for food to be kept in, and the cleaners have instructions to remove any food found in them. After using the kitchen, please be sure you do all the washing-up immediately and leave it tidy. If you use it late in the evening, please also take care that you do so quietly in order to avoid disturbing people in nearby bedrooms.

Music. If you like your music loud, please use headphones! Remember that your neighbours may not share your tastes. Breaking this rule can result in being asked to leave the hostel. Musicians can use the practice rooms in the basement. Book through the manager.

Health. Any serious problems should be taken to the local doctor. The number to ring for an appointment on the 'help' list beside the phone on each floor. For first aid, contact the manager or one of the students whose names you will find on that list, who also have had some first aid training.

TEACHER

Your friend is getting married soon. You've heard some not-so-nice things about their fiancé/fiancée (perhaps s/he is lazy, dishonest, untidy, etc.).

You've decide to talk to your friend and try to get them to change their mind about getting married.

You start: Hi, could we talk?

STUDENT

You're SO happy! You're getting married soon and your fiancé/fiancée is the best thing that has ever happened to you! You love him/her SO much!

A friend has asked to talk to you – you know they've been saying bad things about your fiancé/fiancée which doesn't make you very happy.

Will you listen to what your friend has to say now? Do you think they might be right? Or maybe they're just jealous of your happiness...
