Student A

You are an Erasmus student studying at a British university but running your own small business to earn money to cover your costs. You are being interviewed by an internet security consultant who would like to know how you protect your small business' sensitive information. Explain to him/her:

- how you use computers and the Internet,
- how you use external sites, such as social networking sites,
- whether you use the internet for financial transactions.

You are an Internet security consultant. You are interviewing an Erasmus student studying at a British university but running a small business to earn money to cover his/her costs. You would like to know how he/she protects their small business' sensitive information. Ask him/her:

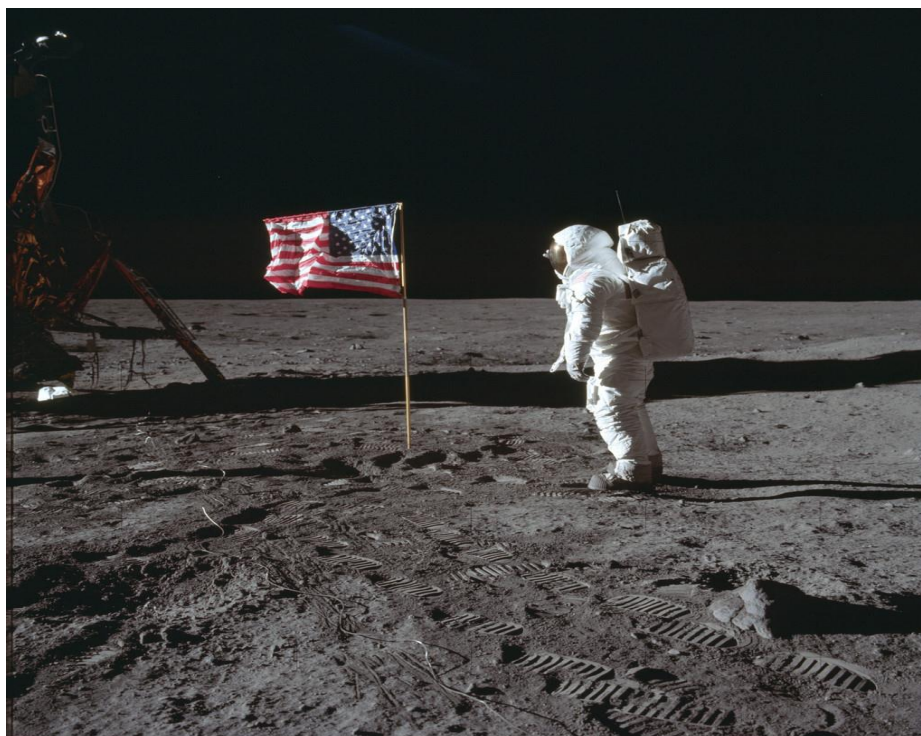

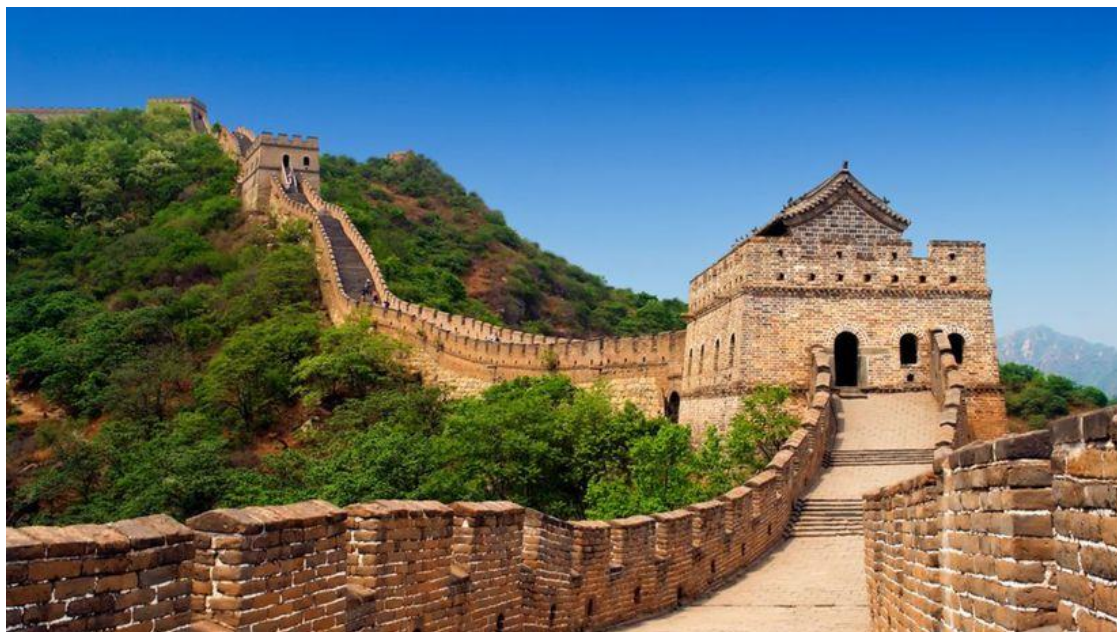

- how he/she uses computers and the Internet,
- how he/she uses external sites, such as social networking sites,
- whether he/she uses the internet for financial transactions.

Ask him/her what he/she knows about security areas such as passwords, public computers, financial information, etc.

You will hear Elisabeth McGovern talk about her life. For statements 01-08 that summarise its different aspects, match texts A-E you will hear. Three statements do not directly match the texts. Write X instead of a number for these. You will score five points.

Text A

We go for walks, make meals and I love the British tradition of the Sunday meal, which wasn't something I did growing up in America. When I first moved here, my mother-in-law made a big family meal on Sunday and we've taken her reins.

Text B

That's basically the key to everything! When I was pregnant with our first baby and the doctor was checking for the baby's heartbeat and asking if we wanted to know whether it was a boy or a girl, my husband said, 'I don't care what it is. I just want it to have a sense of humour'. At that moment I realised, 'That's why I'm with this guy'. Humour is a way of processing problems, which makes them easier to beat.

Text C

Shortly after they left, we had lockdown, so they both moved back in and I couldn't have been happier! I would be lying if I said I don't miss them. I was branching out during their upbringing. As they began school, I started a band, and then the challenge and responsibility of writing this play hit me at the perfect time. It has really distracted me from feeling the loneliness of having them go.

Text D

Sometimes you forget how to be really polite, as you naturally would to a person you don't know as well. We sorted out a lot of kinks when we worked together early on in our relationship, and went into it with more wisdom and experience this time.

Text E

I like my sleep, I enjoy my water, and I love to swim and keep moving. It turns out the things your mother used to say are true. If you feel happy in your skin, the rest takes care of itself. I started doing Sarah Beth yoga tapes during lockdown and I've kept that going. I put them on whenever I feel like it and I don't even change my clothes.
